Overview

The Appalachian Geological Society and the Appalachian Basin PTTC are pleased to announce that experts from Baker Hughes, Schlumberger and Weatherford International will offer a one-day advanced logging workshop on February 12 at the Waterfront Place Hotel in Morgantown.

Registration will be limited to 75 students, so register early.

Schedule

Sign-in and workshop material distribution will begin at 8:00 a.m. The workshops will begin at 8:30 a.m. and conclude at 5:00 p.m.

Cost & Registration Information

The registration fee for those whose registration forms and checks are received prior to the February 5th deadline will be $100. The fee for those who register after February 5th will be $125. However, you need to be aware that the number of registrants will be limited, so late registrants may be turned away. The registration fee includes the workshop notebook and all breaks. Please make checks payable to "PTTC" and return with the registration form to: Douglas Patchen, P.O. Box 6064, Morgantown, WV 26506-6064. Remember, registration will be limited to the first 75 paid registrants.

Hotel Information:

A small block of rooms has been set aside at the Waterfront Place Hotel for the night of February 11th. Registrants will be responsible for making their own room reservations. Call 304-296-1700 before February 5th and ask for the AGS or Appalachian Geological Society block rate of $89.

The hotel is located a 2 Waterfront Place off University Avenue in Morgantown's Wharf District along the Monongahela River.
